

Would-be rescuer drowns

A would-be rescuer drowned at his favorite fishing spot Sunday trying to save three members of a family swept into undercurrent on White River in Morgan County.

Kenneth Yant, 33, Indianapolis was swept into the undercurrent at the Indianapolis Power & Light Co. dam just north of Martinsville while trying to save three people also caught in the deadly current. The people whom Yant was attempting to rescue made it to safety.