

Man drowns while swimming in river

CYNTHIANA — A man has drowned after he was swept over a dam while swimming in the rain swollen Licking River.

The Harrison County coroner told WLEX-TV the man who drowned Wednesday evening was 20-year-old Brandon Holbert.

The Harrison County Sheriff said witnesses told him Holbert was walking across Robinson Dam around 7:45 p.m. when he dove into the river. He swam 10 feet before the water swept him over the edge of the dam.